To:
Whom it may concern.

This letter is to introduce a man our company has been doing business with for the past year, Curt Strutz. I personally have delt with Curt, as Fishmaster Lures is one of his proud sponcers and I am the contact for that type of activity.

Curt doesn't ask for much and is constantly offering his services to do seminars for our products and he keeps us very well informed of his activities such as, the results of fishing tournaments he participates in, articles he publishes concerning our products, fishing outings with kids groups, ect. Curt is not only a respected angler and writer, he also loves working with kids and has helped to form a city of Milwaukee youth fishing program called "The Right Angle" - teaching youth about fishing and how the sport can make a positive impact in their lives, both physically and spiritually.

In the short time I have been associated with Curt Strutz I have grown to appreciate him and would recommend him as a dependable partner in business. I think he would represent any product to the best of his ability.

Sincerely,

Charles N. Randolph
President
Fishmaster Lures, Inc.
